Public Access – conditions and notes

Disclaimer

No responsibility will be taken for any errors or omissions in the planning/building regulation information obtained from Public Access. Similarly the information contained does not constitute in any way a formal notification of a planning/building regulation decision, and as such any actions taken as a result of information displayed on the site are undertaken entirely at the viewer's own risk. The Council will not accept any liability in respect of any loss, damage or injury (financial, contractual or otherwise) sustained as a result or allegedly as a result of reliance thereon.

Comments (Planning Applications only)

You must understand that any representations submitted using the 'Comments' facility will be made publicly available (including to the applicant and their agent) and that confidential representations cannot be taken into account by the Council.

Land ownership

Boundaries shown on the Ordnance Survey mapping and implied through planning/building regulation applications do not necessarily relate to land ownership. The Council does not hold records of private land. All queries related to land ownership should be directed to HM Land Registry: www.landregistry.gov.uk.

Currency of information

Whilst every effort has been made to ensure the accuracy of the data, the information contained within the site must not be used as a substitute for carrying out a formal 'Land Charge Search'. This includes details of historic applications and constraints on a particular site. Printed copies and uncontrolled electronic copies of any documents may not be at the latest revision.

Planning constraint information is not available via Public Access. Details of planning applications currently exist from January 1990 and building regulations submissions from January 1999. For details of applications prior to these dates please complete the online request form.
